Leading Professionals in Local Government

As part of LGMA Queensland's commitment to recognise outstanding leadership and management excellence in local government, we are delighted to invite nominations for the 2018 Manager of the Year Award for Leadership and Management Excellence.

To acknowledge and encourage leadership and management excellence, this Award will be presented to a senior local government employee who, in the opinion of the judging panel, has made an outstanding contribution to the positive growth of their council and community.

The Award is open to senior managers who are employed by a Queensland local government and have been for a minimum of 12 months.

The Award winner will receive professional development to the value of $4,000, recognition in LGMA Queensland's publication, 'The Journal', and a framed Award certificate.

Nominations can be made by employers, mayors, councillors, supervisors or co-workers and must be received by 5pm on Monday, 13 August 2018.

AWARD OBJECTIVE

To encourage recognition of leadership and management excellence shown by a Queensland local government employee, who has demonstrated outstanding commitment and whose performance as a leader and manager is worthy of special recognition. The Award promotes increased community awareness of the important role played by local government professionals as well as increasing the profile of LGMA Queensland within the sector.

NOMINATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Provide a written submission addressing the judging criteria (maximum 3 pages. Half a page per criteria preferred)
2. Provide a single page outline of the nominee's career history
3. Provide two professional written references and referee contact details
